Indiana County Public Safety Training Academy

Scheduled Programs - January to June 2025

Local Level, Suppression and Non-Suppression Programs:

All County 1st Responders;

Happy New Year! Welcome to the 50th Year of Public Safety Training, sponsored by the Indiana County Fire Academy/Public Safety Academy. In 1976, the Fire Chief's Association of Indiana County began delivery of training programs for Fire Departments within and adjoining to Indiana County. These formative years were done in an annual weekend delivery, where several programs were offered simultaneously. In 1977, the winter offerings of the Basic Fire Fighter course were held at the Homer City Fire Station. We are proud to continue this tradition of offering local level training programs to our first responder community.

The information on program offerings at the Indiana County Public Safety Academy are intended for you to gain experience and knowledge in basic response techniques and skills. These program offerings are developed and delivered in line with the Pa. State Fire Academy "Local Level" course offerings. If there is a program that you would like to have offered, from the State Local Level course listing, please feel free to contact us and we will make every effort to provide that program.

Please visit our website for the most up to date information on course offerings, PDF fillable documents, course cancellations, and general information on site use, course requests for delivery at your station or any other information related to our facility. The website can be found from any search engine; Indiana County Public Safety Academy or by entering icpsa.indianacounty.org.

Coming up in 2026 will be the new series of essentials training, although not included in this brochure, the EL-26 programs are slated to be implemented July 1, 2026, and will include the Fire Ground Support course, along with Pro-Board / IFSAC Certification, and the Fire Fighter I and Fire Fighter II course offerings, with Pro-Board / IFSAC Certification. These new program offerings will also come with a change in textbooks, moving to the Fundamentals of Firefighter Skills, 5th Edition, Jones and Bartlett.

To guarantee the most efficient processing of course registrations and issuance of course certificates, we must have a valid email address for each and every student in the program. A PDF fillable and printable application is available on our website. Please email your completed course registration forms to icpsa@indianacounty.org for quick registration in local level training. If you are going to mail your application, please send it to ICPSA, 85 Haven Dr, Indiana PA, 15701. Applications mailed directly to the Academy's Homer City address can be delayed. Course registration notification, as well as course completion certificates, will be sent via email to each student. Students can keep the digital copy and forward copies to their department or anywhere else they may be needed. State law prohibits us from sending completion certificates to anyone other than the student.

All students registering for courses at ICPSA require the students to be registered in the PSFA ACADIS Learning Management System. This system will also be used for access to Certification Testing applications, as well as historical documentation of your completed training programs. Note: Bucks Co. Community College courses and certification do not appear on the States ACADIS platform, therefore, hardcopies of these documents will still be required to be presented as pre-requisites or co-requisites for course registration. Registration on ACADIS also requires that you obtain a FEMA SID number. If you do not have a FEMA SID or don't remember your number, please keep your card handy for reference.

We are hopeful that this information and the new format of the course brochure is helpful. As always, if you have questions regarding any training program, feel free to contact us.
